

Our Office Staff

Bob Sjogren: President of UnveilinGLORY. Bob is the mover and shaker behind the live seminars which go out as well as the creator of "Prayer to Go" and "The Journey." Bob and his wife Debby have four children.

Carolyn Lantz: Personal Assistant to the President. Carolyn runs all of the business details of making UnveilinGLORY work as a non-profit organization and takes as much as she can off of Bob's shoulders so he can keep focused on his projects.

Barbie Carman: The Go To/Everything Person! Barbie does it all. From taking orders and shipping them out, to keeping our books, if you have a general question, Barbie is the one to go to!

Andre Fredette: Media/IT Director. With a background in video production and editing as well as web development and design, Andre takes care of all the "tech" stuff in the office.

Mark Elkins: Director of Ministry Development & Speaker

Mark is the in-house liaison between UnveilinGlory and our host churches. Through prayer and consultation with each church's key personnel, Mark works to ensure that every conference is a God-honoring success. He brings a solid background of verse-by-verse Bible teaching and Fortune 500 corporate experience to UnveilinGlory.
