"To say that a seminar transforms lives almost seems trivial today. Many claim that. However, I have seen personally how the "Cat and Dog Theology" seminar changes the place from where people relate to God. Once that has happened, there is nothing but transformation left. With simple truths presented in a direct fashion, all Christians can benefit from learning why we are here. "It's not about us" is almost a catch phrase these days. This seminar explains why that is true." - Brent Eimer - (former President, "ACMC")
